Schrock Innovations Welcomes New Technician

Jeremy Reed to Bolster Schrock Onsite Technical Staff

Omaha, NE – Dec 10, 2006: Jeremy Reed was hired today to provide a much needed increase in the Schrock Innovations onsite appointment capacity.

At any given time, Schrock Innovations is booked solid for onsite appointments. Some customer have waited as long as 2 weeks to get a technician to their home.

“Finding a qualified person with the right skills and personality for this position is essential,” Thor Schrock, Owner of Schrock Innovations said. “This isn’t a job where any warm body will do.”

Jeremy will begin training the week of the 25th and should be available for appointments by mid-January.
